

TEXT FILE FOR SOUTH AFRICA 15

This twenty-year old Black Female hails from Namibia. Although her mother tongue is Nama she speaks Afrikaans with the fluency of the first language user. In the interview she discusses her country of origin and her interest in its different languages. She has been living in studying in Pretoria, Gauteng for the past three years.

Although Afrikaans is not her first language, her accent in English displays many of the typical patterns noted in mother-tongue speakers. Also note the preposition use in "I study for drama" that may reflect syntactical first language interference.

Interviewed by Marth Munro in October 2005

Running time: 04:05