

TRANSCRIPTION

I was born on the west coast, small little town called and (Um) Vredendal, it's a (Um) during the last days, it was, fairly a big place nowadays, but in my days it was very small, the school we were only twenty in matric. And (Um) but I enjoyed being there, it was a nice place, have a lot of friends, it was very, very nice.

UNSCRIPTED SPEECH TRANSCRIBED BY JACQUELINE BAKER, ASSOCIATE EDITOR FOR TRANSCRIPTIONS, October 26, 2007

/matric/ - common term for the final year of school in South Africa