I was born and raised in Buenos Aires, Argentina. I've never lived abroad or away from my city and I've always studied English with Argentinean teachers (since age 3). During the unscripted speech I talk a little bit about my country, its culture, its particular accent, and then about my upbringing and English studies.

The recording was made Tuesday, August 1st 2006

The transcription of the text I say in Spanish in my recording is the following
"Bueno, les mando un saludo muy grande desde Argentina y gracias por haber escuchado. Adiós"

And its translation into English is as follows:

"Well, I send you my kindest greetings from Argentina and thank you for having listened. Goodbye!"
