

Schedule of assignments for part I—filled in future-like-ours argument against abortion (Jan. 23 & 30)	epistemic closure (Feb. 6 & 13)	integrity objection to utilitarianism (Feb. 20 & 27)	personal identity (Mar. 6 & 13)	Newcomb's problem (Mar. 27 & Apr. 3)

A	A1: argumentative papers critiqued in class	1 Sean Meseroll	3 Crystal Rose	5 Kristina Swim	7 Michael Stolzle	9 Trevor Young
		2 Mike Clapper	4 Deborah Williams	6 Russ Waltz	8 Jim Emerson	10 Micah Bailey
	A2: argumentative papers not critiqued in class	11 Kristina Swim	15 Sean Meseroll	19 Sean Meseroll	23 Russ Waltz	27 Jim Emerson
		12 Micah Bailey	16 Michael Stolzle	20 Crystal Rose	24 Micah Bailey	28 Crystal Rose
		13 Michael Stolzle	17 Russ Waltz	21 Mike Clapper	25 Trevor Young	29 Kristina Swim
		14 Jim Emerson	18 Mike Clapper	22 Trevor Young	26 Deborah Williams	30 Deborah Williams
	B: critiques of argumentative papers	31 Trevor Young	33 Micah Bailey	35 Deborah Williams	37 Crystal Rose	39 Sean Meseroll
32 Russ Waltz		34 Kristina Swim	36 Jim Emerson	38 Mike Clapper	40 Michael Stolzle
C: summaries discussed in class	41 Crystal Rose	43 Trevor Young	45 Michael Stolzle	47 Sean Meseroll	49 Russ Waltz
	42 Deborah Williams	44 Jim Emerson	46 Micah Bailey	48 Kristina Swim	50 Mike Clapper

Notes for each student:

- A. Your name will appear in three of the A cells, in three columns.
  1. Your name will appear in one of the A1 cells.
  2. Your name will appear in two of the A2 cells.
- B. Your name will appear in one of the B cells, in a column different from the columns in which your name appears in the A cells.
 Papers and critiques are associated as follows: cell 31 corresponds to cell 1, cell 32 corresponds to cell 2, etc.
- C. Your name will appear in one of the C cells, in a column different from the columns in which your name appears in the A and B cells.